CLASS OF '21 PRESENTED A FINE HISTORIC EFFORT

Delight an Audience which Completely Fills High School Auditorium

SHOWED EXCELLENT TRAINING

The historic effort of the Class of '21, in Walter Ben Hare's four-act play, "And Billy Disappeared," as presented at the high school auditorium, last evening, will take its place in the history of the local institution as one of the most finished productions ever given, locally, by high school students. From the time the curtain went up on the first act until the completion of the play, the vast audience was entranced by the unusually clever work of the various participants. The faults so common to amateur productions were not visible in the efforts of the young players last evening. The work of the whole cast was indicative of conscientious preparation. Lines were read audibly and intelligently, while the stage work of each participant was done with an ease which betokened confidence born of a complete familiarity with the parts allotted. The hard and persistent rehearsal to which all had been subjected during the past few weeks showed in last evening's well regulated performance that the time had been well spent. Much of the praise and credit for the final success of the work is due Miss Frances Maud Beck, teacher of English, who was ably assisted by Miss Della Webster, teacher of French, in the preparation of the play.

"And Billy Disappeared" is to differ in style to the class plays which have preceded it—being a play, and not a comedy—that its successful presentation called for a marked degree of individual ability. That this was actually so was verified to the complete satisfaction of the large audience, last evening, which manifested its pleasure of the work of the young actors by the bestowal of well merited applause.

James P. Eowers, who essayed the part of "Hon. R. M. Borden, the prosecuting attorney," delighted his friends with his especially good work. He seemed to fit the character in every particular. James Gray's portrayal of the difficult part of "Ishmael, the hermit," was a really clever effort. Herbert R. Licher, as "Bob Dusenberry," and Paul L. Ohliger, in the character of the colored maid, furnished the comedy element, and both were unusually effective. The audience was kept in a most happy mood by their splendid interpretations. Frank Wagner was in his element as "Gene Greener," the persistent salesman. Edward Aubrey Daniel, in the title role of "Mr. Billy," proved himself to be an ideal lover, and incidentally, gave a very successful portrayal of the character of the detective-aeronaut. Ann Welsh proved equal to the part of the much maligned "Mary Blake," and won much praise by her splendid work. The character of "Miss Match," the conniving spinster was most capably handled by Virginia Mountser, who greatly surprised her many friends by her marked display of ability in this connection. One of the many pleasing features of the performance was Grace E. Piersol's winsome work as "Aggie Borden," the irrepressible young sister of the district attorney. Evelyn Warrenford won encomiums of well deserved praise for her delightful work as "Mrs. Gray, proprietress of the Silver Trout Inn," and Edith Riley as "Nancy Borden," did exceptionally well. In fact, every member of the cast is to be congratulated on the part they had in what is generally conceded to be one of, if not the finest presentation of a class play ever given by local high school students.

Miss Dorothy Stroud sang "There's a Long, Long Trail," during the third act, in an excellent manner, being accompanied on the piano by Miss Gertrude Donaldson.

Music for the play was furnished by the high school orchestra, of twenty pieces, under Prof. Daniel's direction in a most efficient manner.

CHARLEROI GIRLS WIN ATHLETIC MEET

A telephone message from Washington at one o'clock this afternoon gave the good news to local high students that the Charleroi girls had won the first athletic meet ever held for girls in Washington county.

In the 50-yard dash Liabella Woodward took first place and Winsetta Pieper second. In the 75-yard dash Winsetta Pieper took third place and Liabella Woodward fourth. In the baseball throw Thelma Phillips was first with 157 feet and 8 inches; Annetta Carson was third. The Charleroi girls won the quarter-mile relay race; and Grace Piersol won the standing broad jump.

The Charleroi girls won a total of 31 points.

Big Boxing Card Arranged for Thursday Boxing Show

The sport loving population of the Monongahela valley is to be given a real treat next Thursday night at the Charleroi baseball park, when the boxing contests are held for the benefit of the destitute women and children of Ireland.

A meeting was held last night by the American Federation for the recognition of the Irish Republic together with the committees recently appointed to conduct the drive for the Irish suffrage at which time the treasurer reported that he had received from the drive $1,533.63 to date from this district and that there were some yet to be heard from.

The money that comes from the boxing contests will be added to that amount and when the full amount is totaled Charleroi will have turned in a nice round sum to that which is being collected in other parts of the state.

At the meeting last night Edward Paluso, manager of the boxing contests stated that he had arranged for one of the best boxing cards that has ever been put together for one show in this part of the country. All told there are five bouts and every one of them are matches that the fans of this district are delighted with. Coming at the time of the year just after each one of the boxers has put in a busy winter this show will determine the real worth of each boxer.

The card is such that it is hard for anyone to pick out anything but a headliner, for every one of the boys who will take part has been seen in some of the largest shows that has been held in Pittsburgh, and many of them have been through the east and some have been seen in action as far away as New Orleans and San Francisco, California, during the winter. The card has a variety of boxers. One of the matches will be a real slugging match, another will be scientific boxing match, in fact the whole show will be replete with many interesting features.

The following is the card as so far arranged:

Joe Larue of Charleroi vs. Willie Scott of Wilkensburg.

Young Pinchot of Charleroi vs. Patsy Brannigan of North Side, Pittsburgh. Young Carmen of Charleroi vs. Johnny Walsh of Pittsburgh, Steve Carter of Charleroi vs. Chick Branch of McKeesport, Brick Ryan of Ellsworth vs. Young Cutsey of Charleroi.

It is possible that other bouts be arranged in which the DeMarco brothers will take part, also Young Roscoe of Donora, if men can be found that will assure evenly balanced contests.

"MAN—WOMAN—MARRIAGE"
The greatest love story ever told. Its theme is the faith of women throughout the ages. It pictures a triumph of Mother-Right in scenes of drama, humor and sacrifice. It stands unparalleled in point of dramatic, spectacular, and human entertainment, with wonderful vistas of the Amazons of old, the pagan courts of ancient Rome, the "chivalry" of mediaval days, and the sweeping current that is life today.

SHOOTING MAY RESULT IN MURDER

Theodore Taylor is in the Monessen lockup, awaiting the outcome of wounds which he inflicted on Nick Wapis during a fight at Pricedale last night. Wapis is in the Memorial hospital at Monongahela, and officers say he will die, as he was shot through the abdomen.

The trouble resulted at a celebration being held by Greeks at Pricedale last night. Wapis and another man got into a fight, when Taylor, a Greek, interfered. He drew a revolver and shot Wapis and then made his escape in the darkness.

It was feared that Taylor had escaped, but the Monessen police were telephoned to be on the lookout for the man. About 2:30 this morning Lieutenant Lawson saw a suspect coming out of an alley who resembled Taylor and he ordered him to hold up his hands. The suspect kept one hand in his coat pocket, but he was blocked in any intention he may have had of resisting when a citizen came to the assistance of the officer and grabbed Taylor from behind. He was placed in the lockup and will be turned over to the state police.

FIRE DESTROYS FOUR AUTOS AT BENTLEYVILLE

A frame garage owned by S. B. Crouch at Bentleyville was destroyed by fire last night, and four automobiles burned up. The machines were owned by Dr. Elack, Roscoe C. Perkins and Oliver White, who had two. The Bentleyville fire department was called to the scene and with their engine soon put a quietus on the fire. The loss will amount to something over $4,000.

MORAL, BUT NOT FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO LECTURE COURSE

SUNDAY MAY 8
IS MOTHER'S DAY

It will also be a visiting day at Haube's Greenhouses at Twilight.

To my friends, patrons and the public in general:

You are cordially invited to visit my greenhouses on Sunday, May 8, in the afternoon. With good weather and good road the walk or ride to the greenhouses will be much enjoyed. I have them full of nice plants and flowers. Bring your mother out and make it a perfect Mother's Day by treating her to a ride and a visit to the country. I do not expect anybody to buy anything on this day. I want it to be a strictly visiting day. Greenhouses are located one mile west of Belle Vernon station (Speers) take the road up hill. Come all. TO OBSERVE MID- WEEK HALF HOLIDAY

Beginning on Wednesday, May 11 all of the butcher shops of Charleroi and a majority of the grocery stores, will close each Wednesday afternoon during the spring and summer, and up until the middle of September. By adopting this system the stores will be giving their employees a mid-week half holiday, which will be a set-off against the overtime they are required to work on Saturday evenings. The move, it is believed, will prove a most popular one, and one which the public generally will commend.

Henderson Coulter, the well known veteran Pennsylvania Railway baggage master, who for the past two years has been a member of the crew on the Fairmont run, while waiting for his train to be made up in Pittsburgh on Tuesday last, suffered from a stroke of paralysis and was removed to his home in Monongahela. His condition is said to be precarious.

Directors of Chamber of Commerce Favor High
Class Entertainments

PUBLIC FORUM ON THE 17TH

The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce met on Thursday at 4:00 p. m. with eleven of the twelve members present. This was one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held by the Board. Guy Mifflin and C. B. White appeared in behalf of the White Lecture Bureau. Mr. White, who represents one of the oldest and best established lecture courses touring in this country, presented in a very pleasing way a course which he recommended for Charleroi during the coming winter. It consists of four members which would cost nine hundred dollars. One of these members was that of Frank Crane, the well-known editorial writer. There were also included in the course two musical numbers and one play. The course was discussed from and from every angle and it was finally decided that the Chamber of Commerce would give its moral but not financial support, to such a course. If such a course is to be promoted during the coming winter it will likely be guaranteed by the signatures of twenty or twenty-five of our leading citizens who are interested in bringing something of cultural and educational value to the people of Charleroi. One of the functions of the Chamber of Commerce is to endorse any movement that has educational and moral worth and certainly will in every way stand back of such a lecture course.

H. C. Terbush made a very complete and acceptable financial statement of the Chamber of Commerce. He went most thoroughly into a careful examination of all the books and records available.

The Farmers Committee met Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock and decided to arrange a forum to be held on either the 17th or the 19th of May, at which time the County Agent, Mr. McKee, of Washington Pa., will be the speaker. Joseph Haube, chairman of the Farmers' Committee, prepared a list of the farmers living within a reasonable radius of Charleroi who would be interested in bringing produce to the Curb Market. These farmers will be asked to appear at a forum meeting together with the entire membership of the Chamber of Commerce. In addition, Mr. Haube and Mr. Theodore Allen will each make a short speech. A lot of good material on the Curb Market is now available at the Chamber of Commerce. This has been gathered from cities all over the country where the Curb Market has been a success. The curb market would be held on Sixth street between McKean and Fallowfield avenue, Council having already given permission, beginning about June 15th. The Women's committee together Continued on Page 2.

What Henry Ford Says About Machine Power Farming

"In the tractor the farmer now has a machine in which is harnessed one of the most adaptable, efficient, economical sources of power in the world—the internal combustion engine.

"The tractor will multiply the productive capacity of each individual farm worker from three to four times over.

"It will put the farmer on a par with the city manufacturer. It will put his produce-producing factory—for that is what a farm is—on to an efficient production basis.

"It will enable each worker to earn so much more that he can be paid more and still leave a greater profit for the man who hires him. It will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life.

"I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth."

Fine cheviot and cassimeres in suiting materials and other patterns men are looking for. Well tailored. Cuff bottom. All lengths and waist-measures to 42.

SMART SUITS

The town on edge over these

The say it's the "best ever"

$27

No business could exist selling suits like this 12 months in the year at $27.00! But this is our Anniversary month—and our makers don't figure on profits on these suits—nor do we!

Suits of similar quality, style and make usually sell for $40 to $50 (a valuation based on current market conditions.)
